

SOUP TUREENS

A tureen is a large, deep, covered dish originally used for serving soup or stew. The purpose of the tureen is to serve a large number of people at the dinner table whilst presenting a beautiful, interesting or grandiose example of silverware. Our Infiniti soup tureens are made of 18/10 stainless steel and the units come complete with stainless steel insert, water pan and holder for Global Chafing Fuel. There are two ways of heating, fuel or heating element.
